THE ELECTRIC RAILWAY.—Round trip to Mount Vernon.—As stated yesterday a trial trip was made over the Mount Vernon division of the new electric railway late yesterday evening. The car left the corner of Fairfax and King streets at 5:55 o'clock, having on board Dr. Abbott, president of the construction company; Superintendent Reed, Secretary Spear, Engineers Davis, Stier and Flint; contractors Turner and Kibbe; Mr. Lyett, of the Bell Car Company; Mayor Strauss, Postmaster Agnew and a representative of the GAZETTE. The car was in charge of Motorman E. M. Davis and Conductor W. R. Warfield. This being the trial trip, there was no effort made to attain high speed, and several necessary stops were made, including two to allow section hands to remove construction cars from the tracks. The trip, however, was satisfactorily made. The party was soon whirled through the city and to the banks of the creek, on and over the bridge to New Alexandria, the terminus of the city division, and entering the main stem (the Mount Vernon section) the car sped on through hill and dale, over brooks, runs and minor Potomac tributaries until 6:25 o'clock when the Mount of America was reached for the first time by a railway car. The party was met at the gates by Mr. Young, who escorted them to the mansion, where Superintendent Dodge cordially received and hospitably entertained them. After having spent over half an hour very agreeably in and about the mansion and grounds, at 7:55 o'clock the party again boarded the car and started homeward. On reaching New Alexandria a stop was made and the company proceeded to the power house to inspect the engines and the electrical apparatus, which were in full operation. A description of the machinery, &c., erected there was published in Monday's GAZETTE. After having had everything thoroughly explained (though to the unsentimental much seemed incomprehensible) the party once more entered the car and were soon gliding many feet above old Hunting Creek watching the weird shadows cast on the waters by the car, poles and wires and the flashes of sheet electricity from the current. This city was reached at 8:05 o'clock, the trip having proven very satisfactory and beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. The road is pronounced well built. There are several turnouts and the scenery along the line is picturesque and beautiful.

MESSRS. W. H. LAMBERT, JOHN A. MARSHALL, JAMES R. CATON, ESQ., JUDGE NORTON and several other gentlemen were taken over the road this morning by Superintendent Reed. The run to Mount Vernon was made in thirty minutes. Everything worked satisfactorily. On the return trip a full carload of passengers was brought back composed chiefly of strangers who had visited the tomb of Washington and who had taken lunch at the Woodlawn ladies' booth. At twelve minutes past two o'clock a car started on a regular trip to Mount Vernon, and two others followed closely in its wake. These cars returned at 4:30 o'clock, crowded with passengers. Later other cars made round trips.

This morning the cars began running on the streets shortly after 9 o'clock and crowds of persons availed themselves of the opportunity of riding on them. The line is receiving excellent patronage, as is shown by the receipts for yesterday, the opening day, when 2,000 persons who paid their fare were carried, as were about 2,000 more who rode free.

PERSONAL.—Mr. John A. Arnold, formerly of this city, but now of Bloomington, Ill., is in the city on a visit to his old home, after an absence of 23 years. He speaks very encouragingly of the democratic prospects in Illinois. G. W. Coolbaugh, esq., editor and proprietor of the Wilkesbarre, Pa., Telegram, was in the city to-day. Gen. Andrew G. Chapman, of Charles county, Md., who is well known in this city, suffered another stroke of paralysis on Monday and is not expected to live. This is the third stroke that Gen. Chapman has suffered. Miss Essie Terry and Ida Harper, of Mount Vernon, Indiana, are visiting friends in this city. Mr. John McInnis, formerly of this city, but now of Malden, Mass., is on a visit to his friends here. Miss Nannie Hudson and Miss Emma, daughter of R. J. Goodwin, esq., of Richmond, are visiting Mrs. K. A. Tucker, of this city. Mrs. Dr. Speight, of Norfolk, who is on her way to Philadelphia, will spend a few days with Mrs. McVeigh, at 608 Queen street. Mr. Robt. Bell, who has been living in Goshen for the past few months, is in the city on a visit to his relatives. Mrs. J. E. Willard and her daughter Nellie, who have been spending the past two months in Baltimore, are the guests of their cousin, Mr. E. J. O'Brien, of Gibbon street.

Mr. G. A. Paff, of New Castle, Pa., is in the city on a visit to his father, Mr. F. Paff.
